

ACMP Pacific Northwest Chapter (ACMP PNW)

Privacy Policy

ACMP PNW respects the privacy of its members and visitors to its website. The following Privacy Policy explains how ACMP PNW collects, uses, and safeguards your information.

Information Collection

Visitors to ACMP PNW's website are anonymous. Personal information, with the exception of an IP address, is not collected automatically. Information collected automatically includes an IP address and other information provided by the user's browser, such as the type of computer and operating system being used.

When registering for a conference or purchasing/requesting a product or service, the ACMP PNW website collects the provided information.

When members join the ACMP global organization and nominate to affiliate with the ACMP PNW, the ACMP global organization provides personal name and contact details to ACMP PNW.

ACMP PNW's website uses cookies to track users' activity in order to improve the website, offer the user interactive features, and recall specific information to save the user time during subsequent visits to the website.

Information Use

ACMP PNW may, on occasion, send you emails regarding the association, news, events, and products. ACMP PNW does not make member contact information available to third parties.

Email

ACMP PNW may email members by means of a bulk email program. All emails will include an unsubscribe option.

Links to Other Sites

The ACMP PNW website may include links to other websites. Since ACMP PNW has no control over and is not responsible for the privacy policies or contents of those websites, ACMP PNW encourages you to review the privacy and other policies of those websites.

Information Security

ACMP PNW implements commercially reasonable security measures to protect against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction of data. To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, ACMP PNW has put in place the appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information collected online.

Requesting Collected Information

ACMP PNW strives to give site users autonomy over their personal information. Members can request access to, changes or deletion of their personal information.

Please note that ACMP PNW may not accommodate a request to change information if it is believed the change would violate any law or legal requirement or result in inaccuracies.

Right to Access and/or Take Your Data:

Anyone can request a copy of their personal data and can ask for a copy of any personal data provided in machine readable form.

No Guarantee

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Despite our best efforts, ACMP PNW cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information you transmit to us, or to or from our online products and services. If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact ACMP PNW Vice President at vpres@acmppnwnetwork.org.

Acceptance Policy

By using the ACMP PNW website, you are agreeing to the terms and conditions set forth in this Privacy Policy.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

As ACMP PNW, its membership, products, and services change from time –to time, this Privacy Policy is expected to change as well. ACMP PNW reserves the right to modify the Privacy Policy at any time and for any reason. The date of the last revision to the Privacy Policy appears at the date at the end of this Privacy Policy

Adopted by the Board of Directors on June 6th, 2025.
